Garlinghouse Plans for 100 New Homes

The plans shown in this book represent only a fraction of the total number of designs which are available to you. We have 22 different plan books listed on the back cover of this book and in them are more than 1,250 designs from which you may choose the one you wish to build.

Complete Plans Available

Complete working plans, specifications and mill lists are available for every design shown in any of the GARLINGHOUSE plan books. The moderate price of these plan sets represents your best investment when building, since you know in advance what you are getting, thus avoiding misunderstandings.

THE PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS, LUMBER AND MILL LISTS as we have them made up for the designs in our books are sufficient and further details are not needed by any competent builder.

MINOR ALTERATIONS CAN BE MADE BY BUILDERS—It is impractical to change our tracings to show alterations, but minor alterations in design, material substitutions, etc., can be made by any competent builder without going to the expense of making special plans, which usually cost several times the price of our stock plans.

Complete plan sets when ordered will be mailed by parcel post (or air mail anywhere in U.S. if 75c per plan additional is included) within one day after your order has been received by The L. F. Garlinghouse Company.

TO OBTAIN COST ESTIMATES—An estimate of what it will cost to erect any house illustrated in any of our books, in your locality, may be obtained by consulting your local builder.

ALL PLANS SENT ON MONEY BACK GUARANTEE—All Garlinghouse Plans are sent on a "Money Back If You're Not Satisfied" Guarantee. You have five full days after receiving the plans to study them over and to decide if they will serve your purpose. Plans which are not satisfactory may be returned for prompt exchange or refund.

Order Your Plans This Simple, Easy Way!

USE THE HANDY ORDER BLANK ATTACHED! Or just send us your name and address with the plan number from the book and the number of sets you want along with your remittance and we'll have them in the mail within 24 hours after receipt of your order.

We have available to you the complete working plans, specifications, lumber and mill lists for the designs shown in this book and all of our other books (listed on the inside back cover) at the prices listed with the design ($7.50 to $25 per set). Your plans will be in the mail within 24 hours after we receive your order. Here's what you get:

PLANS—The complete working plans consist of blue prints of all four elevations, basement and all floor plans and details showing built-in features and intricate parts, all drawn to a scale of not less than one-fourth inch to one foot. Also, a plot plan in blank to be filled in locally.

SPECIFICATIONS—The specifications explain in detail the construction of the house from the excavation to the interior decoration.

LUMBER AND MILL LISTS—The lumber and mill lists consist of an itemized list of lumber and mill materials needed to construct the building and state where each item should be used.

No. 5562—This plan, which is typical of many beautiful plans featured in Garlinghouse Plan Books, shows the result of careful planning. Four bedrooms are shown but the arrangement permits using them for other purposes, such as a den, sewing room or all-purpose room. Spreading out 76'4" this ranch home with long, low lines will certainly be an attractive addition to any community.

No. 5573—Many new homes are designed without sufficient closet space for an active family. There are two closets in the rear bedroom and three in the front bedroom in addition to a dressing table. This plan features the popular entrance hall from which all rooms can be entered. The massive fireplace located in one corner of the living room offers many possibilities for furniture arrangement.

No. 5588—A home designed for comfortable and gracious living and suitable for either town or country. Examination of the room arrangement shows the results of careful planning. An enclosed porch is shown in back of the garage affording privacy from a busy street. The bedrooms are large and numerous closets and storage space have been provided. Stairway marked "DN" leads to a full basement. The brick trim shown on the front elevation is a pleasing contrast to the siding shown on the balance of the house.

Your home is a world in itself. Its design and decoration color your life, affect your personality, give security and background to your family unit. Details are important and they make your home important. Do not be satisfied with just a house, make it your own. The finishing touches are entirely up to you and can make your house into a distinctive home.

No. 5539—There is no lack of closet space in this compact plan. Note the six closets in addition to a linen closet. The high window in the front bedroom permits good arrangement of bedroom furniture. The plans show a full basement. If garage is omitted, the house is only 36' in width.

The "reverse" of a plan means that the rooms which are shown on the left in the photo and floor diagram would be placed on the right. All dimensions and proportions are retained in the plan as reversed. To obtain the effect of a reversed plan hold the photo to a strong light and look through the rear side. Reverses are provided to allow you to orient the house to suit your lot.

No. 5466—The fireplace of this small house serves as a partition between the living room and entry. The chimney has been extended to the porch and with the knotty pine around the door makes a distinctive entrance. The plans show the living room and dining space as one large L-shaped room but they could be separated by an archway or bookcases as indicated by the dotted lines on the plans. The stairway marked "down" leads to a full basement.

THE PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS, LUMBER AND MILL LISTS as we have them made up for the designs in our books are sufficient and further details are not needed by any competent builder.

No. 5564—This home offers a convenient five room efficiency arrangement. The kitchen and dining combination as shown is becoming popular as many homebuilders prefer to use space ordinarily allotted to the dining room to increase the size of the living room. Shingles are used on the exterior with a combination of knotty pine across the front of the living room and entrance.

No. 5241—The clean conservative lines of this five-room brick veneer cottage add distinctiveness to the design. Intended for an average size family, there is space on the second floor for possible future expansion. By the addition of dormers at the back, the attic space would be sufficiently large enough for additional rooms. A delightful feature is the enclosed porch and the terrace. The oversized closets in the bedrooms, the easy access to the bath from all rooms and the large glassed area in the living room are other features adding to the convenience of this plan.

The designs in this book were planned and designed after many years experience in building houses and helping people select plans for their homes. The designs have been carefully thought out with consideration for the requirements of the difference in the size of families and they are of maximum quality at minimum expense.

To build without definite plans invites misunderstandings, possibility of costly mistakes and faulty, weak construction. Secure your complete plans through your dealer or the L. F. Garlinghouse Co., Inc., Topeka, Kansas.

No. 5404—Here is a three bedroom house that should be economical to construct. The front bedroom has been extended out to break up the straight lines of the front exterior. With the exception of this break the plan is rectangular in shape. An efficient room layout features nine closets which are sure to appeal to the modern homemaker. The exterior walls are brick veneer and the plans show a full basement.

No. 5320—A plan that will meet with the approval of the modern housewife. Two bedrooms are shown and the den is arranged to be used as a third bedroom. Locating the bath with shower between the den and utility room makes an ideal arrangement, particularly so because bath may be entered direct from outside without entering the main rooms. A full basement is shown but may be omitted and the heating unit placed in the utility room. The utility room is ideal for deep freezer, automatic washer and dryer, mangle and other modern housekeeping equipment.

The most satisfactory way of obtaining an accurate estimate of the cost of the house that you intend to build is to purchase a set of plans and have your material dealer or contractor figure directly from those plans. Then there is no error, which is often the case if approximations are made on a square-foot or cubic-foot basis.

By the reverse of a plan it is meant that the design is available so that the rooms shown on the left will be on the right, and vice versa. This is done in order that the house may be oriented to suit your lot. When you order plans they will be sent as shown unless you specify that you want the reversed plan.

S. J. HATHCOCK & SON

No. 5174—A three bedroom house that is suitable for a narrow lot. An opening is shown between the living room and den. If preferred this door may be omitted. There is space for a breakfast table in the U-shaped kitchen. Exterior walls are frame stuccoed and the plans show a full basement.

No. 5464—One of the principle objections to a basementless house is the lack of sufficient storage and closet space. Close examination of this floor plan reveals four large clothes closets, a linen closet and a large storage room at the rear of the garage. The large (13'11" x 8'11") utility room has ample space for laundry and heating equipment.

No. 6034—Planned as a luxurious country home to overlook a broad expanse of lawn, this house has three immense bedrooms and a superabundance of closet space. Depending upon the family requirements the bedrooms could be used as combination bedroom-playroom for the children, bedroom-sitting room for parents, and as a private apartment for a guest. The storage closets on the second floor marked "C.C." are cedar lined clothes closets. The central hall plan, as always, makes for an extremely convenient house where the various rooms are easily reached with a minimum of cross-traffic through other rooms.

No. 5165—Early American styling is evident in the exterior of this shingle covered seven-room home. Modern in all respects the floor plan reveals many of the popular features that are a “must” with the present day home-maker. The large entryway allows for easy passage to the downstairs rooms. Traffic is across only one corner of the living room making it ideal for interesting furniture arrangements. The first floor being a complete five-room unit permits finishing the second floor as the family needs demand. The plan shows a full basement.

No. 6429—This house is constructed of concrete “bricks,” so named because they are much smaller than the average concrete block used in residential construction. When used in a modern design such as this hipped-roof five-room suburban, they create an extremely pleasing appearance. This house is excellently arranged for the average small family. The kitchen, with its continuous cupboards, is highly efficient. The front bedroom has two closets of wardrobe size giving an unusual amount of storage space. Casement windows are used throughout.

No. 6777—Many future home builders have difficulty in selecting the type of materials to use for the exterior walls. One look at this house will convince them that stone veneer will give a pleasing and stately appearance. This house has been designed for a large and active family. Note how cleverly the entrance has been arranged to form a small foyer that includes the guest closet and storage space for books and games. The large terrace with the outdoor grille invites outdoor living and being located at the rear of the house assures privacy. The stairway marked "dn" leads to the basement.

No. 6695—A beautiful commodious ranch type design with low roof lines following the contour of the hill-side. The floor plan shows a large entrance hall and seven main rooms, also a breakfast room, two complete bath rooms, powder room, nine closets, large storage closet, large porch and terrace. At the rear of the garage are two maid's rooms, bath and closets. These may be omitted if desired. The large 8-ft. fireplace and picture window looking out over the landscape in the rear, and the four pairs of French doors opening onto the porch in front are among the many unusual and attractive features. There is a full basement under the main house. The foundation of this house is stone and the house is constructed of frame veneered with stone.

Select Your Fireplace

With Full Information

Your happiest fireplace choice would be a Donley Heatsaver, that circulates heat from outlet grilles, like a small furnace, while affording the charm of an open fire. Many small homes rely on it exclusively. In larger homes it saves firing the central plant in seasons of moderate chill. Burning any solid fuel, it is a life saver when gas pressures are low or thermostats fail . . . Simple masonry fireplaces and outdoor barbecues offer a wide field of choice in exterior treatments while preserving interior design that assures clean, warm fires, free of smoke nuisance. Among the newer ideas is use of outdoor cooking units in indoor assemblies as at the upper left . . . The Donley Book of Successful Fireplaces has 76 pages packed with pictures, designs and information. Chapters on planning, building and operation of fireplaces, also fireplace history . . . Chapter on outdoor fireplaces included but if interested only in outdoor fireplaces or barbecues we suggest sending for 20 page booklet of Donley Outdoor Fireplaces as a step toward the delights of hot meals cooked in the open.

WHICH BOOKLET SHALL WE SEND?

Check No. 1, enclosing 50 cents (U. S. stamps accepted), and you will receive The Book of Successful Fireplaces, 76 pages, more than 300 pictures, plans and diagrams, dealing with both indoor and outdoor fireplaces. But if only interested in Outdoor Fireplaces, send 25 cents and check No. 2.
